

Eleanor Bolen, 3, Drowns In Tiber Swollen By Rains

Nearly five hours after she tumbled into the swollen waters of the Tiber near the North Washington street bridge, the scratched and bruised body of Eleanor Bolen, three-year-old adopted daughter of Private and Mrs. Edward Taylor, 227 North Washington street, was found in debris in Rock creek near the mouth of the Tiber by firemen who had searched for more than two and a half hours.

The search for the little girl, begun by neighborhood children and friends, enlisted the borough police and later members of the Gettysburg fire company who searched every foot of the Tiber from the railroad bridge west of North Washington street to the creek. More than 50 men aided in the search while several hundreds of others watched from the banks and bridges.

"I Thought She Was Swimming"

First hint of the fate that had overtaken the little girl was given by William Edward "Teddie" Slifer, five and a half year old son of the Rev. and Mrs. Luther W. Slifer, 209 North Washington street, who remembered after the search had begun, that he had seen Eleanor slip into the Tiber and float downstream. "I thought she was swimming," he said.

"Teddie" went with firemen to the Washington street bridge and told them how he and Eleanor had stood on the bridge watching the swift, muddy waters of the Tiber and then showed the men where Eleanor walked close to the slippery edge of the stream. "She just slipped—and then she went," he told a reporter for the Gettysburg Times later.

He said the little girl floated downstream without crying out and he thought she was swimming. He went home to play and "forgot about it" until the search for the child began.

W. L. Moore, 155 North Washington street, said he had seen the two children playing on the bridge as he sat by a window in his home. Later he saw the boy alone. Wondering if the little girl had fallen in the water he went out on his porch to look along the stream and told a neighbor, John Cool, what he had seen. Cool also investigated but saw no traces of the child.

Missed About 6:15

Mrs. Taylor said that Eleanor had slipped out of the house without being noticed. Mrs. Taylor, 36, lives it was not more than 10 or 15 minutes after the girl tumbled into the waters of the Tiber that she was missed and May Russell, 14, who lives with Mrs. Taylor, began a search in which neighbors and children of that part of town soon joined. The time of the child's disappearance was fixed at about 6:15 o'clock.

Shortly after 7 o'clock they notified Borough Officer Lloyd E. Wisler who began the official search. When Borough Officer Charles W. Culp reported for duty at 8 o'clock he called out the fire company. Burgess Fred G. Pfeffer was among the first group of six firemen that began the search of the Tiber channel. They started at the Fourth street bridge and worked westward.

Two fire engines with high-powered spotlights and portable floodlights powered by a small, movable generator were taken to bridges over the stream to flood the channel with light as the firemen waded along the rough channel, marked at several points with deep holes. Each section of the stream between the various bridges that span the stream in its course of nearly a mile to Rock Creek was searched thoroughly.

Hand Sticks Above Water

About 11 o'clock the engines were taken near the banks of the stream back of the Burgoon and Yingling plant near the confluence of the Tiber and Rock Creek. The portable generator was carried to the bank and the area flooded with light while the firemen probed through the debris gathered along a wire fence that spanned the channel. It was Vernon Corle who saw the child's hand above the muddy water.

The coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, was called and he officially pronounced the girl dead and listed the case on his records as "accidental drowning." The body was taken to the Bender funeral home in the borough police car.

Eleanor, who had lived with the Taylors since she was four weeks old, was to have been legally adopted by the couple later. Mr. Taylor, who has been in the Army for nearly a year, went overseas about three weeks ago but his wife has not yet been notified where he was sent. Before going into the service Taylor worked at the Letterkenny munitions depot and previous to that at the Silk throwing company plant here.

Many Obstacles

The Taylors have one child of their own, Judy Ann, aged 18 months. Before her marriage, Mrs. Taylor was Miss Ivory Slarry. The Taylors lived on North Washington street for more than a year. Previous to that they had resided at 1015 North Washington street.

KNOUSE PLANTS DEHYDRATING AAA POTATOES

The Knouse Corporation at Peach Glen disclosed today that it has made an "experimental run" of 10 carloads of government potatoes which have been dehydrated at the Peach Glen and Chambersburg plants of the company and that negotiations are now under way for the future dehydration of much larger quantities.

At Peach Glen the potatoes are run through a Hammermill and then dried into a powder form. At Chambersburg, they were sliced, dried and then ground into a powder.

The announcement was made in response to questions about a new Agricultural Adjustment Agency policy in Pennsylvania under which the government started buying 1943 potatoes in Potter county to hold in storage against a possible shortage in the early season crop from southern area. At the same time the AAA disclosed its plans for dehydrating the spuds.

For Use As Feed, Alcohol

John Smith, secretary of the state AAA, said the buying program was decided on after reports were received that only half a crop is expected from Alabama, Florida, Tennessee and the Carolinas this spring due to blight and a wet spring.

The AAA at the same time continues its purchases of last year's potatoes in southern Pennsylvania for shipment to Ohio dehydrating plants for conversion into industrial alcohol and stock feeds. Smith explained that these potatoes are not suitable for storage.

The potatoes used by the Knouse corporation came from York and Lancaster counties, Smith stated.

TWO CONVICTED, ONE ACQUITTED IN COURT HERE

Two defendants were found guilty and a third acquitted by Adams county juries Monday afternoon as they completed their work in hearing criminal cases for the April term.

John S. Teeter, Sr., Taneytown, was found not guilty of a malicious mischief charge. Tim Young, Berwick township was found guilty of larceny and Eugene Hallman, Lancaster R. D., was found guilty of passing a bad check.

The Hallman jury retired at 1:45 o'clock Monday afternoon and reached its decision at 3:10 o'clock, one of the longest deliberations in recent terms of court.

Civil Cases Wednesday

With the conclusion of the Teeter case, the jurors were excused until Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock when the court will take up the hearing of civil cases for the present term. The court was in session today to hear disputes regarding election procedures.

The jury in the larceny case brought against Tim Young, Berwick township, by Warren Blocher, Hanover, took only ten minutes, from 2:20 to 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon to decide that Young was guilty as charged.

Blocher, York county detective Jesse Crabs, John McDannell, tenant on Blocher's farm in Berwick township and Blocher's son-in-law, all told the same story: That they had been missing grain from the Blocher farm and that they had set a trap to catch whoever might be taking the grain. Two of them hid in a brooder house, and two in the farm house on April 8. Shortly after nine o'clock in the evening they heard a noise in the piggery and found Young with a bag of scratch feed.

Young's story was that he was walking to his brother's house about three-fourths of a mile from the Blocher farm when McDannell and Blocher's son-in-law, both carrying rifles, "jumped out of the woods, stuck their guns in my back and made me walk to the Blocher farm. There they made me crawl into the piggery and then called for Jesse Crabs and Blocher to come out." Young said they had the scratch feed "planted" and "had everything in readiness" when they brought him to the farm. He informed the jury he had never seen the two men before and never had had any quarrel with them.

Young was found guilty of the larceny of the bag of feed valued at $2.75.

MELVIN RAU IS BADLY INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Melvin Rau, 28, Bendersville, mechanic for the Wayside garage, near Aspers, was seriously injured when a truck he was repairing along the Gettysburg-Carlisle highway, four miles north of Biglerville, was struck by a car operated by Solomon L. Hinkle, 37-year-old fruit grower of Gardners R. 2. The crash occurred about 6:15 o'clock Monday evening.

Rau is a patient in the Warner hospital today suffering from a fracture of the skull and injuries to the left arm. His condition was described as "not satisfactory."

Mr. Hinkle was treated at the hospital Monday evening for a fracture of the nose, lacerations of the face and contusions of the chest. He was discharged after receiving treatment.

Working On Motor

Investigation of the accident by Private Harold Sheads of the Gettysburg detail of the state police showed that Rau had stopped the truck on the highway and was standing on the front bumper working under the hood of the truck motor. The impact of the collision caused his head to strike the instrument board of the truck. The collision shoved the truck forward about 150 feet and Rau was carried the greater part of that distance until he dropped to the roadway. Apparently he was not run over by the truck. Hinkle's sedan ran off the right side of the road and stopped.

Mr. Hinkle told the officer that his car was not traveling at more than 35 miles an hour when the crash occurred about a half mile south of the garage where Rau is employed. Hinkle was enroute to his home from a trip to Mt. Holly Springs.

The Adams county ambulance took Rau to the Warner hospital in an unconscious condition. Donald Fetters of near Gardners took Mr. Hinkle to the hospital.

Total damage to the two vehicles involved is estimated at about $600. No charges have been laid while the investigation is being continued.

Mrs. C. E. Bilheimer, Mrs. John A. Mumper and Mrs. Victor Dutera, Gettysburg, and Mrs. H. D. Shepard, Hanover, have returned from New York city where they attended the annual congress of the DAR.

C. C. KENNEL, 64, FOUND DEAD HERE ON MONDAY

Chalmers C. Kennell, 64, Spanish-American war veteran and a battlefield guide for the last 18 years, was found dead in the basement of his home at 408 South Washington street, about 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. Dr. C. G. Crist, the county coroner, attributed death to coronary occlusion.

Although he had been under the doctor's care for some time, Mr. Kennell appeared in his usual health Monday and had been downtown earlier in the day. He was last seen about 12:45 o'clock in the afternoon.

Served In Philadelphia

He apparently was stricken while working in a partially excavated section of the basement in an attempt to close a hole in the foundation wall. His body was found there by Mrs. Kennell when she returned home late in the afternoon after a trip downtown. A physician was called and then the coroner was notified.

Born in Adams county, the deceased was a son of the late Charles W. and Mary Jane (Dull) Kennell. He lived all of his life in this county excepting for a year he worked in Philadelphia as a trolley motorman and the time he was in the service.

He was a member of the Sergeant William M. Steffy post of the United Spanish War Veterans and had served as post commander in 1941. He had served with the 22nd Infantry in the Philippines from 1902 to 1904 and was given his Army discharge there.

Rites Thursday

Surviving are the widow, Daisy Mae (Gotwalt) Kennell, to whom he had been married 33 years ago; an adopted daughter, Mrs. Dale Miller, Gettysburg; two grandsons; a brother, Leslie Kennell, Gettysburg; and two sisters, Mrs. Clarence Heagerty and Mrs. Nellie McCormick, both of Baltimore.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bender funeral home with the Rev. Dr. N. B. S. Thomas, pastor of the Gettysburg United Brethren church, officiating. Interment in Evergreen cemetery with members of the Steffy post in charge of military rites at the grave.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday evening after 7 o'clock.

Allies In New Guinea Driving For 3 Airfields

By C. YATES McDANIEL

MacArthur's Advanced Headquarters, New Guinea, April 25 (AP)—American and Dutch invaders, slowed more by mud and mountain than by disorganized Japanese resistance, closed from two sides today on three airfields in a 350 square-mile area of Dutch New Guinea around captured Hollandia.

A fourth airfield, seized by another invasion force against sniper opposition 150 miles to the southeast near Aitape, was pressed into service less than 48 hours after its capture. Fighters and troop transport planes landed there yesterday.

Thousands of invading troops the bulk of them Americans, were landed at three beachheads Saturday, protected by the guns and dive bombers of a Naval armada which Adm. Chester W. Nimitz credits with wiping out 101 Nipponese planes, all but 13 on the ground.

No Organized Resistance

Reports today by Gen. Douglas MacArthur and advices from the field by Associated Press war correspondents told of a steamroller, impeded largely by the terrain, overrunning territory within bombing range of the Philippines.

Nowhere in the Hollandia area, less than 1,200 miles from Mindanao, was there any word of organized fighting by the 14,000 Japanese estimated to comprise the defending force.

On the west flank, American soldiers, last reported within five miles of the main Hollandia airfield, told AP correspondent Murlin Spencer that some Japanese "didn't even have guns." This invading force, landed at Tanahmerah bay, had moved six miles southeast by Sunday afternoon.

On the east flank, red mud which caked the Yanks from head to foot was the chief deterring factor in a mile and one-half push from Humboldt bay into the wreckage of Hollandia village Sunday.

R. C. CHAPTER AND CHAIRMAN GET CITATION

The splendid record made by the Adams county Red Cross chapter in going "over the top" in its 1944 War Fund campaign has won for the chapter an Honor Certificate and for Henry M. Scharf, the War Fund campaign chairman in the county, a special citation.

The honorary certificates, signed by President Roosevelt as President of the American Red Cross and Norman H. Davis as national chairman have just been received at chapter headquarters in the Topper building where daily contributions push the War Fund total steadily higher. It is now nearly $2,000 above the $25,500 quota.

"Reposing especial confidence, faith and trust in the public spirit, loyalty and patriotism of Henry M. Scharf, this certificate of recognition is conferred by the American Red Cross." That statement is engraved on Mr. Scharf's certificate while the certificate for the chapter cites the unit's "distinguished achievement" in the 1944 War Fund.

Topped Many Quotas

The chapter's certificate will be framed and hung in the chapter office near a similar certificate received a year ago for topping the county quota in the 1943 drive and others issued in peace time when the chapter on a number of occasions exceeded goals set by national headquarters.

The current War Fund is $28,228.28 with $1 donations from Walter L. Folker, Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Baker and Mrs. Amos Golden received since Monday's announcement.

The Red Cross office said today that in the lists of contributors published last Thursday in The Gettysburg Times the donors listed as having given "less than $1" should have been in the "$1 list" and that those announced as having given $6 each actually contributed $5 apiece.

A final list of sums raised by the various campaign districts in the county and town is being compiled at the Red Cross office and will soon be ready for publication, it was announced today.

228 VOTES IN TOWN AT 1 P. M.

Precinct workers in today's primary election in Gettysburg are twiddling their fingers, taking naps and "loafing" because they haven't any work to do.

In the most desultory balloting recorded in a primary election in Gettysburg in many years, a survey of the four precincts in town shortly before 1 o'clock this afternoon revealed 176 Republican votes and 52 Democratic, a total of 228.

The second ward turned out the largest number of voters with 75, the Republicans leading with 59 and the Democrats 16. The polling place is located in Kendeheart's pool room. At the court house, third ward polling place, 72 votes were cast, 54 Republicans and 18 Democrats.

At the fire engine house, first ward, first precinct, 31 Republicans had cast their ballots and eight Democrats were recorded.

At the Hotel Gettysburg annex, first ward, second precinct, 42 votes were cast, 32 reported for the Republicans and 10 for the Democrats.

Four years ago, in the presidential primary campaign, 512 votes were cast in Gettysburg up to 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Eleanor Bolen, 3, Drowns In Tiber Swollen By Rains

Nearly five hours after she tumbled into the swollen waters of the Tiber near the North Washington street bridge, the scratched and bruised body of Eleanor Bolen, three-year-old adopted daughter of Private and Mrs. Edward Taylor, 227 North Washington street, was found in debris in Rock creek near the mouth of the Tiber by firemen who had searched for more than two and a half hours.

Cook also investigated but saw no traces of the child.

Parents Asked To Keep Kiddies Out Of Streams

Borough officials, deploring the drowning of little Eleanor Bolen, 3, in the swollen Tiber early Monday evening, today appealed to parents to warn their children not to play in the creeks in town.

"It is not only because of the damage some youngsters have done to creek walls but the element of danger," one of the borough officials said.

Recently more than ten feet of a sustaining wall along one of the streams was torn down by youngsters and the material used to build a dam across the stream. It required two borough employees more than a half-day to repair the damage.

Many youngsters have been in the habit of playing in the streams and borough authorities are hopeful that parents will cooperate in an effort to keep the youngsters away from these places.

Mrs. Taylor said that Eleanor had slipped out of the house without being noticed. MELVIN RAU IS BADLY INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Melvin Rau, 28, Bendersville, mechanic for the Wayside garage, near Aspers, was seriously injured when a truck he was repairing along the Gettysburg-Carlisle highway, four miles north of Biglerville, was struck by a car operated by Solomon L. Hinkle, 37-year-old fruit grower of Gardners R. 2. The crash occurred about 6:15 o'clock Monday evening.

Rau is a patient in the Warner hospital today suffering from a fracture of the skull and injuries to the left arm. His condition was described as "not satisfactory."

Mr. Hinkle was treated at the hospital Monday evening for a fracture of the nose, lacerations of the face and contusions of the chest. He was discharged after receiving treatment.

Working On Motor

Investigation of the accident by Private Harold Sheeds of the Gettysburg detail of the state police showed that Rau had stopped the truck on the highway and was standing on the front bumper working under the hood of the truck motor. The impact of the collision caused his head to strike the instrument board of the truck. The collision shoved the truck forward about 150 feet and Rau was carried the greater part of that distance until he dropped to the roadway. Apparently he was not run over by the truck. Hinkle's sedan ran off the right side of the road and stopped.

Mr. Hinkle told the officer that his car was not traveling at more than 35 miles an hour when the crash occurred about a half mile south of the garage where Rau is employed. Hinkle was enroute to his home from a trip to Mt. Holly Springs.

The Adams county ambulance took Rau to the Warner hospital in an unconscious condition. Donald Fetters of near Gardners took Mr. Hinkle to the hospital.

Total damage to the two vehicles involved is estimated at about $600. No charges have been laid while the investigation is being continued.

Mrs. C. E. Bilheimer, Mrs. John A. Mumper and Mrs. Victor Dutta, Gettysburg, and Mrs. H. D. Sheppard, Hanover, have returned from New York city where they attended the annual congress of the DAR.

C. C. KENNEL, 64, FOUND DEAD HERE ON MONDAY

Chalmers C. Kennell, 64, Spanish-American war veteran and a battlefield guide for the last 18 years, was found dead in the basement of his home at 408 South Washington street, about 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. Dr. C. G. Crist, the county coroner, attributed death to coronary occlusion.

Although he had been under the doctor's care for some time, Mr. Kennell appeared in his usual health Monday and had been downtown earlier in the day. He was last seen about 12:45 o'clock in the afternoon.

Served In Philadelphia

He apparently was stricken while working in a partially excavated section of the basement in an attempt to close a hole in the foundation wall. This body was found there by Mrs. Kennell when she returned home late in the afternoon after a trip downtown. A physician was called and then the coroner was notified.

Born in Adams county, the deceased was a son of the late Charles W. and Mary Jane (Dull) Kennell. He lived all of his life in this county excepting for a year he worked in Philadelphia as a trolley motorman and the time he was in the service.

He was a member of the Sergeant William M. Steffy post of the United Spanish War Veterans and had served as post commander in 1941. He had served with the 22nd Infantry in the Philippines from 1902 to 1904 and was given his Army discharge there.

Rites Thursday

Surviving are the widow, Daisy Mae (Gotwalt) Kennell, to whom he had been married 33 years ago, an adopted daughter, Mrs. Dale Miller, Gettysburg; two grandsons; a brother, Leslie Kennell, Gettysburg; and two sisters, Mrs. Clarence Heagerty and Mrs. Nellie McCormick, both of Baltimore.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bender funeral home with the Rev. Dr. N. B. S. Thomas, pastor of the Gettysburg United Brethren church, officiating. Interment in Evergreen cemetery with members of the Steffy post in charge of military rites at the grave.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday evening after 7 o'clock.

Allies In New Guinea Driving For 3 Airfields

By C. YATES McDANIEL

MacArthur's Advanced Headquarters, New Guinea, April 25 (AP)—American and Dutch invaders, slowed more by mud and mountain than by disorganized Japanese resistance, closed from two sides today on three airfields in a 350 square-mile area of Dutch New Guinea around captured Hollandia.

A fourth airfield, seized by another invasion force against sniper opposition 150 miles to the southeast near Aitape, was pressed into service less than 48 hours after its capture. Fighters and troop transport planes landed there yesterday.

Thousands of invading troops the bulk of them Americans, were working at three beachheads Saturday, protected by the guns and dive bombers of a Naval armada which Adm. Chester W. Nimitz credits with wiping out 101 Nipponese planes, all but 13 on the ground.

No Organized Resistance

Reports today by Gen. Douglas MacArthur and advices from the field by Associated Press war correspondents told of a steamroller, impeded largely by the terrain, overrunning territory within bombing range of the Philippines.

Nowhere in the Hollandia area, less than 1,200 miles from Mindanao, was there any word of organized fighting by the 14,000 Japanese estimated to comprise the defending force.

On the west flank, American soldiers, last reported within five miles of the main Hollandia airfield, told AP correspondent Murlin Spencer that some Japanese "didn't even have guns." This invading force, landed at Tanahmerah bay, had moved six miles southeast by Sunday afternoon.

On the east flank, red mud which caked the Yanks from head to foot was the chief deterring factor in a mile and one-half push from Humboldt bay into the wreckage of Hollandia village Sunday.

Enemy Flees

AP correspondent Asahel Bush, writing his dispatch amidst ruins of the community's 150 buildings, said only the sprawling bodies of dead enemy stragglers were found after naval guns, dive bombers and mountain mortar raked the village.

At Aitape, the story was the same. The enemy garrison of between 500 and 1,000 fled, leaving 98 dead and a few prisoners around seized Tadjil airfield. Australian Royal airforce engineers worked at night under floodlights to repair the bomber and fighter strips while American troops moved on Aitape village five miles north.

"Landing craft brought a never ending flow of troops and supplies to the beachhead from Liberty ships and transports," reported AP correspondent Spencer Davis.

Humboldt bay forces, in addition to occupying Hollandia village took the village of Pim four miles to the south, within eight miles of the Tami airfield in the Lake Sentani area. The main Hollandia field is 17 miles west, the Cyclops field 11 miles west and slightly north.

Air Opposition

To the northwest of Hollandia, Japanese air bases at Geelvink Bay, from which planes could be sent against the invaders, apparently have been reinforced. Headquarters said today that Liberators had to fight off 30 interceptors, shooting down 14 from 10 to 17, while dropping 41 tons of explosives on airbases there. The bombers had met no enemy air opposition in recent raids on that sector.

Everywhere over the 150-mile invasion front between Aitape and Hollandia, the evidence of enemy surprise was noted. At Humboldt Bay, a radio station, two truckloads of ammunition, 11 other trucks, tractors, a workshop and gasoline stores were captured. Freshly killed horses were found near an enemy kitchen.

Topped Many Quotas

The chapter's certificate will be framed and hung in the chapter office near a similar certificate received a year ago for topping the county quota in the 1943 drive and others issued in peace time when the chapter on a number of occasions exceeded goals set by national headquarters.

The current War Fund is $28,228.28 with $1 donations from Walter L. Folker, Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Baker and Mrs. Amos Golden received since Monday's announcement.

The Red Cross office said today that in the lists of contributors published last Thursday in The Gettysburg Times the donors listed as having given "less than $1" should have been in the "$1 list" and that those announced as having given $6 each actually contributed $5 apiece.

A final list of sums raised by the various campaign districts in the county and town is being compiled at the Red Cross office and will soon be ready for publication, it was announced today.

228 VOTES IN TOWN AT 1 P. M.

Precinct workers in today's primary election in Gettysburg are twiddling their fingers, taking naps and "loafing" because they haven't any work to do.

In the most desultory balloting recorded in a primary election in Gettysburg in many years, a survey of the four precincts in town shortly before 1 o'clock this afternoon revealed 176 Republican votes and 52 Democratic, a total of 228.

The second ward turned out the largest number of voters with 75, the Republicans leading with 59 and the Democrats 16. The polling place is located in Kendlehart's pool room.

At the court house, third ward polling place, 72 votes were cast, 54 Republicans and 18 Democrats.

At the fire engine house, first ward, first precinct, 31 Republicans had cast their ballots and eight Democrats were recorded.

At the Hotel Gettysburg annex, first ward, second precinct, 42 votes were cast, 32 reported for the Republicans and 10 for the Democrats.

Four years ago, in the presidential primary campaign, 512 votes were cast in Gettysburg up to 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

THINK FINLAND FEELS WAR MAY BE "STALEMATE"

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Associated Press War Analyst
Finland's action in rejecting Moscow's peace terms on the eve of the great invasion and, according to informed sources in Stockholm, gambling that Hitler will achieve a stalemate in the war, won't of course weaken our confidence in Allied success but it's a sharp reminder that Germany still possesses great strength and that a terrible conflict is before us.

Berlin newspapers are saying that "the greatest battle in the history of the world will take place along the Atlantic," and certainly that may prove to be true. Anyway, the Nazis are standing at alert and we should be foolish not to accept their statement that they "are ready for a hard fight."

Ill-Advised Move

Finland's ill-advised move, made in the face of strong possibilities that the United States would sever diplomatic relations, probably represents a decision of desperation. Still, the Stockholm sources say it was based on the conviction that the Reich has sufficient strength so that it may stand off the Allies even though it cannot win a clean-cut victory. This belief must be fairly strong, since the Finnish government is making its terrific gamble despite the recent assurances of its commander in chief, Baron Mannerheim, that the little country hasn't the strength to stand up against an all-out military offensive by Russia.

The Finnish decision admittedly was a difficult one to make, especially in view of the country's friendship with America, and there is fair reason to doubt whether it represents the majority of Finns. Perhaps there still is a chance that Helsinki may find its reason and make terms with Moscow.

Awaits Invasion

Meanwhile one has the uncomfortable feeling that the Finnish government wants to get a look at the start of the invasion of western Europe.

Berlin frankly admits that the Allied bombing has weakened Germany's ability to counter the invasion, but boasts that the Allies won't be able to attain their objective of knocking out the Nazi air force. DNB, the official news bureau, points out that many of the Reich's airplane factories are underground—something which Allied observers long have accepted as a fact.

DNB also says the Luftwaffe is holding a reserve for action when the invasion starts, and there's no reason to doubt that. As this column has pointed out previously, anxiety to preserve a reserve for the big day undoubtedly accounts in part for the comparatively light resistance being offered by Nazi fighter planes to the bombings.

Not Enough Men

Latest figures of German Army strength, as available in Madrid today, give the Germans a possible total of 319 divisions all told. It's certain that many of these divisions aren't up to strength, and we can only guess that they may represent some 3,500,000 to 3,750,000 men. Ninety-six divisions—perhaps something over a million troops—are available to meet the invasion in western Europe.

That's a lot of men, but too few to handle the onslaught which Hitler will have to meet simultaneously on the eastern and western fronts. The Russians are said to be massing troops for offensives to synchronize with the invasion in the west.

on East Middle street for eight years.

Firemen and other volunteers who covered every foot of the Tiber several times in their search of nearly three hours encountered all sorts of difficulties. Sewer, gas and water pipes under bridges blocked their path and made the going difficult. One fireman stepped into a "hole" several feet deep and was soaked from head to foot. Another lost a flashlight and a third fireman reported his gold wrist watch had been lost during the search.

Set New Fires

U. S. Fortresses and Liberators were over the Bucharest and Ploesti yards for more than a half hour, fighting off attacks by between 60 and 70 fighters as they laid bombs on the main lines to Adolf Hitler's troops opposing the Russian armies in Romania.

Bomber Crewmen said their bombs started fires in the Ploesti yards which sent flames and smoke up 5,000 feet. The rail line, roundhouses and oil installations were hit.

Fortresses went over the target first meeting intense flak and between 30 to 40 fighters, 16 of which the Fortress gunners shot down. The Liberators followed up 15 minutes later, encountering only a few fighters although the flak was still heavy.

Of the 29 planes destroyed yesterday, the bomber gunners shot down 24 and the fighters got three more over Romania.

Senator Suggests Work-Or-Draft Law

Washington, April 2 (AP)—Advocating a new work-or-draft law that would cover 4-F's and men up to 45 who refuse to take essential jobs, Senator Brewster (R., Me.), declared today Congress must move promptly to halt an "alarming" labor turnover in industry.

Brewster joined with Senator Bailey (D., N.C.), in sponsoring a bill which would:

1. "Freeze" men between 18 and 45 in essential work by requiring them to get local draft board approval before taking other jobs. If they shifted without draft board approval, they would be subject to immediate induction.
2. Empower Selective Service to conscript 4-F's or any other registrants up to age 45 for war-essential jobs whenever a government manpower committee found that manpower needs could be filled in no other way.

GERMANS RAID CITY OF NAPLES

Allied Headquarters, Naples, Apr. 25 (AP)—German bombers struck sharply at Naples last night in the wake of a great coordinated attack by Allied aircraft against Nazi communications and aircraft plants in the Balkans and northern Italy.

Unofficial estimates placed the size of the Nazi formation which raided Naples at 30 to 40 planes. The attack, although sharp, was not particularly damaging. One of the raiders was shot down by bean-fighters.

The Allies flew 2,000 sorties yesterday, destroying 29 enemy planes for a loss of 14 in operations that included heavy bomber assaults on the Bucharest and Ploesti railroads in Romania and on an aircraft factory at Belgrade.

2,000 KIDS AT CARDINAL MASS

Boston, April 25 (AP)—More than 2,000 of the children he loved paid their final tribute today to William Cardinal O'Connell as his body reposed in state at the cathedral of the Holy Cross.

At a special solemn high mass of requiem, just for the children, little tots and teen age boys and girls, chosen representatives of 325 parishes, schools and institutions, sent up their prayers for the leader they loved so well.

There were childish sobs heard through the spacious edifice as Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward G. Murray, rector of St. John's seminary, celebrant of the mass, intoned the prayers.

Many of the children had sung in the sanctuary choir. Only a short time ago, the venerable cardinal, who died at the age of 84 last Saturday had led them in singing hymns he had written himself. Others, the older children, had received the Sacrament of Holy Communion from his hands.

Throughout the service, youthful eyes turned toward the bier in front of the altar wherein rested the body of the man who rose from the humble surroundings of a mill hand's home to become a prince of the Catholic church.

TWO CONVICTED,

fence in order to reach some timber on the McCarty farm which had been sold to Teeter by the previous owner of the farm, C. H. Bittinger, Hanover.

Mrs. McCarty stated she had given orders to the men not to use the hayfield in order to get to the woodlot and that they had easy access to the woodlot from a macadam road.

Bittinger, as a witness for Teeter, told the court that the fence was in bad shape before the Teeter trucks arrived and that the trucks had used the only entrance to the woodlot. He said he gave Teeter permission to enter the fields through the woodlot when he sold the timber.

Teeter, his son, William Teeter, Bittinger and several other witnesses all testified that Teeter's trucks had kept to the lower part of the field near the trees where, one witness said, "no hay has ever grown." The witnesses all stated that the trucks had not cut deeply into the field or caused other damage. Testimony of eleven other witnesses for Teeter was outlined to the jury by the court.

A libel in divorce was filed in open court by Robert G. Harmon, Gettysburg R. 4, against Clara A. Harmon, charging desertion.

John P. Butt, P. S. Orner, and John W. Lucabaugh were appointed viewers by the court to determine damages to the property of C. W. Crouse, Gettysburg R. 1, caused by the relocation of the Gettysburg-Littlestown road in 1942. May 16 was set as the date for the viewing. The petition of Mr. Crouse asking for the board of viewers stated he had been unable to reach an agreement with the state department of highways on the amount of damages to his property.

Approve Petitions

TROJANS ENTER CIRCUIT MEET

The battle for the trophy in the South Penn Conference track and field meet at Waynesboro, Friday night, May 5, developed into a five way contest over the week-end with Chambersburg entering a team. Previously the meet had been set up as a four-way battle with Gettysburg, Waynesboro, Hanover and Carlisle the entrants.

Coach "Bob" Beard of the Trojan school notified Paul Shull, principal of Waynesboro high school during the week-end that Chambersburg would send a full team to Waynesboro.

In early meetings Gettysburg and Hanover loom as the leading contenders.

Balk Treasury's World Bank Idea

Washington, April 25 (AP)—Attacks on the administration's world bank idea came from two directions in the House today.

Rep. Dewey (R-Ill.), assistant secretary of the treasury under President Coolidge, brought to the foreign affairs committee a concept of world finance at variance with the proposal advanced by Treasury Secretary Morgenthau.

At the same time, Rep. Andresen (R-Minn.) took sharp exception to Morgenthau's statement that his visit to capitol hill to explain the world stabilization fund plan was a statement.

"I would say it was quite to the contrary."

What's more, the Minnesotan asserted, he wants all the details of the world bank proposal "before the President and the Secretary commit our country and its resources to an international venture which is certain to leave the American people holding the bag."

ATTENDANCE AT BALL GAMES IS AHEAD OF 1943

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Baseball moguls waded out to the ball parks today with some spare change jingling in their side pockets because 250,989 customers gave the national game a vote of confidence in the first week of the season.

It's still too early to draw any line on what to expect when the hot along, but there's enough business weather and night games come in the house to top the 1943 opening week turnout by 35,000 paid.

The fans have not broken down any gates in their haste to get into the parks and the attendance is only slightly better than an average peace-time haul for an opening day, but the future outlook is most promising.

Good Average
Although figures are a little out of line because they include the opening day crowds, the attendance has been over 8,500 a game. Anything resembling this average throughout the season would surpass last year's total for both leagues of 7,714,638.

With a shift of scenery the unbeaten New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals go back to work today, Mel Ott's men at Philadelphia and the Cardinals in Cincinnati. Brooklyn at Boston and Chicago at Pittsburgh complete the national calendar.

Those St. Louis Browns keep their win streak intact for at least another day as they are not scheduled, but Philadelphia invades New York. Boston goes to Washington and Detroit visits Chicago for the first time in a three-game American league chart.

MENTION MANY FOR OTT'S JOB

New York, April 25 (AP)—Speculation over Mel Ott's successor as manager of the New York Giants centered on the inner circle of Horace Stoneham's organization today as the popular 35-year-old pilot rejoined his unbeaten club.

Ott passed his physical yesterday at Camden, N. J., and his call to Army duty will come after May 15, possibly not until July 24.

Clarence "Bubber" Jonnard, one of Ott's coaches and formerly a manager and scout in the Giants' farm system, headed a list of possible successors that included Manager Gabby Hartnett of the Jersey City farm, coach Dolf Luque, infielder Billy Jurgens and farm supervisor Carl Hubbell.

During the spring training period when Ott's possible loss first was discussed, owner Stoneham declared that temporary successor would come from within his organization and Ott would have full say as to who it might be. It is fully understood that the job is Ott's when he is again available.

SHROYER ASKS HIGHWAY DATA

Harrisburg, April 25 (AP)—Highway secretary John U. Shroyer, ordered a review today of the department's engineering information in a move to provide more complete data to engineers planning new highway projects.

Asserting "close adherence to these instructions will result in a further saving to taxpayers," Shroyer explained that in the last few years, due to a lack of foresight, detailed surveys and completed construction drawings had to be disregarded in some cases.

Lists Three Points
Shroyer listed these three points as a preliminary survey should follow:

- "1. Selection of design and requirements of the proposed highway in accordance with the needs of traffic, which will use the highway upon its completion.
- "2. The establishment of control points a sufficient distance beyond the present proposed construction to be reasonably sure that the ultimate alignment and grades can be established without destruction or abandonment of any of the present proposed construction.
- "3. The selection of the general location of the route taking into consideration construction, maintenance and right-of-way cost, also safety in vehicle operation."

Seek New Rule For Paper Distribution

Washington, April 25 (AP)—A new set of rules for the distribution of newspaper and other paper was sought today from the War Production Board.

The Senate's Truman Committee gave the WPB 30 days in which to produce "adequate standards to govern the allocation" of paper pulp among book, magazine and newspaper publishers. Chairman Truman (D-Mo) disclosed the WPB had been asked to review the entire matter and report to the committee at a public hearing May 23.

New York, April 25 (AP)—The Giants lost the pennant yesterday.

Of course, not even the most enthusiastic Mel Ott fans were claiming the pennant on the strength of five straight victories, but most of them will concede that the Giants haven't a chance with Mel in the Army. . . . And the news was considered so important here that it even was sent on the Dow Jones financial ticker.

KOPF TO PILOT YANK GRIDDERS "FOR CROWLEY"

Boston, April 25 (AP)—Lieut. Commander James H. Crowley, somewhere in the South Pacific in the braids of a U. S. Navy officer, is probably aware today that he is the newly appointed head coach of the brand new Boston Yankees of the National Professional Football league.

While the announcement of Lieut. Commander Crowley's appointment was issued yesterday by Arthur Sampson publicity director, it is probably true that Crowley is far more interested in vital naval tactics than he is in off-tackle slants and the Boston Yankees.

But Ted Collins owner of the Boston pro football team is a determined young man.

Against the wishes of his rival club owners he is determined to launch the Boston Yankees in Boston's Fenway Park next fall and thus, while Lieut. Commander Crowley is away to war, Collins has appointed Herbert M. Kopf to substitute for Crowley as "boss man" for the duration.

Long Term Contract
While Kopf is said to be duration-subbing for Crowley, he actually has signed a long term contract with the Boston team and, under the terms, may choose to stay in Boston even after Crowley comes back to football.

Jim Crowley used to coach the gridiron teams of Fordham and was a successful head man despite his nickname of "Sleepy." He was probably more prominent in the headlines than Kopf but it is evident that Owner Collins has confidence in Kopf's ability to carry on.

Certainly Kopf has a vast and brilliant football background, starting from his first school-Tyke days in New Britain, Conn., and lasting through his player-career at Washington and Jefferson college; his days as assistant to Lou Little, at Columbia and his six years as head coach at Manhattan.

Texas Democrats Will Bar Negroes

Dallas, Texas, April 25 (AP)—Dallas county Democrats have decided to bar members of the Mongolian, Malayan and "Ethiopian negro" races from voting in the precinct presidential conventions May 6.

Today, Texas anthropologists indicated it will take a Solomon to determine just who will vote.

Dr. Asa C. Chandler, head of the biology department, Rice Institute, Houston, said "election officials probably will run into a great deal of difficulty in deciding eligibility."

Dr. S. W. Geiser, professor of biology, Southern Methodist university, Dallas, declared: "In some cases it is impossible to look at a man and determine his race with any degree of exactness."

Dr. E. C. Webb, professor of religion at SMU and an authority on anthropology, said "Chinese, Filipinos and Hawaiians can't vote, even with their poll tax."

But W. S. Bramlett, chairman of the Dallas county Democratic executive committee said the question of an applicant's race would be "just a detail to be handled by the election judges."

Pittsburgh, April 25 (AP)—The Pirate roster numbered 25 today with the signing of Joe Vitelli, 36-year-old righthander, from suburban McKees Rocks, as the ninth member of the Bucco mound corps.

The Buccs will use Vitelli chiefly to hurl in batting drills. His services were sought several years ago but at that time he was training with Cincinnati. He also had a brief trial with the Yankkees.

NEWSOM SAYS ATHLETICS CAN WIN PENNANT

Philadelphia, April 24 (AP)—The eloquent Mr. Bobo Newsom proclaimed today that he and the Philadelphia Athletics can win the pennant this year just by believing they can win, and, having divulged the opinion, he hastened to say that he wasn't crazy.

The A's, who have a habit of finishing last rather than first, blacked out the Boston Red Sox 4-0 when Bobo pitched his first game in a Connie Mack uniform, and the victory apparently skyrocketed Newsom's hopes.

"You know what, Bo?" said Bobo, who calls everyone "Bo" including himself. "This club can win the pennant this year. Think I'm crazy? Never in baseball has there been a chance like this for a club to win just by believin' they can win and by hustlin' for each other."

"Believe In Yourself"
The Mackmen, Newsom sobloquized before they entrained for today's New York game with the Yankees, are in practically the same position as the pennant-winning Detroit Tigers of 1940.

"You know what helps most in baseball?" he asked. "Believin'-in yourself. Believin' you can win. Look what we did in '40. We didn't have a great ball club. We were just a gang of guys who believed we could win."

Connie Mack, who is known to think that it takes more than just believin' to win, didn't say much on the subject, but did comment that "we have a good ball club this year—much better than last, livelier, but not as lively as some we've had."

The 1944 ball, he said, hasn't had a chance to show itself off to the fans because the weather has been wet.

"In weather like this," he said, "the ball is deadner than ever. I think the ball we have will have plenty of hop to it in dry, warm weather. Then we'll get some good hitting."

ARITHMETIC OF FEDERAL UNITS LITTLE FAULTY

By JAMES MARLOW AND GEORGE ZIELKE
Washington, April 25 (AP)—The Army, Navy and Maritime Commission have made the manpower situation look worse than it is by using certain words and leaving others unsaid. Besides that, some of their arithmetic was bad.

The three agencies issued a joint statement calling for government control of workers through a labor draft. The statement stressed the number of workers quitting their jobs through confidence the war is about won.

The statement said, out of every 1,000 workers employed in February, 65 "quit."

Sharp Difference
There is a sharp difference between a "quit" and a "separation." Statisticians use both words, carefully distinguishing between them, to show what happens with workers.

A "quit" is a worker who does just that, quits, voluntarily leaves a job. But "separation" includes those who quit and those who leave a job for any other reason such as being laid off "for lack of work," discharged (fired for cause), or drafted.

The total separations, therefore, will always be greater than the total quits. But the three agencies' statement said 65 out of every 1,000 quit.

This is what the government's bureau of Labor Statistics, whose figures are basis for all the other agencies, says.

Only 45 out of every 1,000 quit although 65 were separated from their jobs.

Variation Of Figures
The joint statement said: "From March, 1943 to March, 1944, the civilian labor force declined by 1,500,000—equal to the number of men who will be drafted into the armed forces this year."

The statement did not point out that while the labor force was declining only 1,500,000 the armed forces had drafted 3 million out of the labor force.

This would show, therefore, that, while the labor force was losing 3 million, another 1,500,000 who had not been in the labor force a year before had come into it.

But in addition, the statement that the labor force has declined 1,500,000 in the past year is incorrect as will be shown by government figures to be released this week. The Army-Navy-Maritime Commission were using old figures although the latest figures either were available or could have been obtained.

Simple Arithmetic
Actually, the labor force did not decline 1,500,000 but much less.

This is where the three agencies slipped up on their simple arithmetic.

The statement said: Before the

BRITAIN BANS IDLE TRAVEL FOR INVASION

London, April 25 (AP)—Britain halted all but the most urgent travel overseas in another invasion-secrecy step today, while the Germans predicted the invasion hour was near and declared their most seasoned troops stood ready to meet the assault.

The travel ban, "except for business or urgent national importance which cannot be postponed," will run indefinitely and was taken "for military reasons," a home office announcement said. It followed orders restricting movements of diplomats, tightening control over coastal areas, suspending travel to Eire, and other recent steps to prevent leakage of information.

Persons now holding exit permits can use them to leave Britain until midnight Thursday. Thereafter only "urgent" permits will be issued. No permit to leave the country will be valid unless issued on or after April 19.

Experienced German troops from the Russian front now are guarding the Atlantic coast, one German commentator declared, and they "are ready for a hard fight."

DNB said the Allied air blows had weakened "potential German countering strength" but that the Luftwaffe "with many of its plane production factories underground, will not be knocked out," and is "planning a second front of its own—adding reserves to use only when the curtain raises."

Available information in Madrid indicated this might be the distribution of German forces: six divisions in Norway, 12 in Finland, 12 in the Balkans, 175 in Russia, 25 in Italy, five along the Mediterranean coast, and 30 posted on the Atlantic wall with a mobile reserve of 60 divisions at strategic points in France, Germany, and central Europe.

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, April 25 (AP)—The Giants lost the pennant yesterday.

Of course, not even the most enthusiastic Mel Ott fans were claiming the pennant on the strength of five straight victories, but most of them will concede that the Giants haven't a chance with Mel in the Army. . . . And the news was considered so important here that it even was sent on the Dow Jones financial ticker.

Joe Wood, Jr., Red Sox pitcher: son of "Smoky Joe" Wood, Red Sox speed ball king of another era and a pupil of his dad at Yale. . . . Played Sunday ball at Scranton last summer, between stints in a war plant, and won seven games. . . . Was an outfielder until his senior year at Yale, when he turned pitcher and fanned 13 Harvardians in a 1-0 victory. Followed that up by attending a Harvard dance and cutting in on a Harvard man's girl. . . . They were married the following summer. . . . If he tried anything like that with the Yanks, Charley Devens may make a comeback.

ONE MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
One reason why Tim Mara tried to get the pro football league to move its headquarters from Chicago to New York was that the eastern clubs pay about 70 per cent of the upkeep. . . . The move only failed by one vote. . . . Carmen Cook, a pretty good lightweight 15 years ago, is branching out as a manager on the theory that he'll be ready when the fighters come back from the war. . . . Sonny Liles, rookie guard with the Detroit Lions last fall, has been added to the civilian staff conditioning service men at Oklahoma A. and M. He also is carrying 15 hours as a student, so don't be surprised if he turns out to be the Floyd Burdette of the football squad.

KOPF TO PILOT YANK GRIDDERS "FOR CROWLEY"

Boston, April 25 (AP)—Lieut. Commander James H. Crowley, somewhere in the South Pacific in the braids of a U. S. Navy officer, is probably aware today that he is the newly appointed head coach of the brand new Boston Yankees of the National Professional Football league.

While the announcement of Lieut. Commander Crowley's appointment was issued yesterday by Arthur Sampson publicity director, it is probably true that Crowley is far more interested in vital naval tactics than he is in off-tackle slants and the Boston Yankees.

But Ted Collins owner of the Boston pro football team is a determined young man.

Against the wishes of his rival club owners he is determined to launch the Boston Yankees in Boston's Fenway Park next fall and thus, while Lieut. Commander Crowley is away to war, Collins has appointed Herbert M. Kopf to substitute for Crowley as "boss man" for the duration.

Long Term Contract
While Kopf is said to be duration-subbing for Crowley, he actually has signed a long term contract with the Boston team and, under the terms, may choose to stay in Boston even after Crowley comes back to football.

Jim Crowley used to coach the gridiron teams of Fordham and was a successful head man despite his nickname of "Sleepy." He was probably more prominent in the headlines than Kopf but it is evident that Owner Collins has confidence in Kopf's ability to carry on.

Certainly Kopf has a vast and brilliant football background, starting from his first school-Tyke days in New Britain, Conn., and lasting through his player-career at Washington and Jefferson college; his days as assistant to Lou Little, at Columbia and his six years as head coach at Manhattan.

Texas Democrats Will Bar Negroes

Dallas, Texas, April 25 (AP)—Dallas county Democrats have decided to bar members of the Mongolian, Malayan and "Ethiopian or negro" races from voting in the precinct presidential conventions May 6.

Today, Texas anthropologists indicated it will take a Solomon to determine just who will vote.

Dr. Asa C. Chandler, head of the biology department, Rice Institute, Houston, said "election officials probably will run into a great deal of difficulty in deciding eligibility."

Dr. S. W. Geiser, professor of biology, Southern Methodist university, Dallas, declared: "In some cases it is impossible to look at a man and determine his race with any degree of exactness."

Dr. E. C. Webb, professor of religion at SMU and an authority on anthropology, said "Chinese, Filipinos and Hawaiians can vote, even with their poll tax."

But W. S. Bramlett, chairman of the Dallas county Democratic executive committee said the question of an applicant's race would be "just a detail to be handled by the election judges."

Pirates Add New Hurler To Staff

Pittsburgh, April 25 (AP)—The Pirate roster numbered 25 today with the signing of Joe Vitelli, 36-year-old righthander, from suburban McKees Rocks, as the ninth member of the Bucco mound corps.

The Buccs will use Vitelli chiefly to hurl in batting drills. His services were sought several years ago but at that time he was training with Cincinnati. He also had a brief trial with the Yankees.

Pittsburgh, April 25 (AP)—The annual western Pennsylvania junior golf championship tournament will be held at Shannopin country club June 27-29, the executive committee of the western Pennsylvania golf association announced.

Youths who belong to West Penn clubs and have not yet reached 19 years of age are eligible to compete. The 1942-43 winner, Charley Manning, Jr., is now over age and ineligible.

NEWSOM SAYS ATHLETICS CAN WIN PENNANT

Philadelphia, April 24 (AP)—The eloquent Mr. Bobo Newsom proclaimed today that he and the Philadelphia Athletics can win the pennant this year just by believing they can win, and, having divulged the opinion, he hastened to say that he wasn't crazy.

The A's, who have a habit of finishing last rather than first, blacked out the Boston Red Sox 4-0 when Bobo pitched his first game in a Connie Mack uniform, and the victory apparently skyrocketed Newsom's hopes.

"You know what, Bo?" said Bobo, who calls everyone "Bo" including himself. "This club can win the pennant this year. Think I'm crazy? Never in baseball has there been a chance like this for a club to win just by believin' they can win and by hustlin' for each other."

"Believe In Yourself"
The Mackmen, Newsom soliloquized before they entrained for today's New York game with the Yankees, are in practically the same position as the pennant-winning Detroit Tigers of 1940.

"You know what helps most in baseball?" he asked. "Believin' in yourself. Believin' you can win. Look what we did in '40. We didn't have a great ball club. We were just a gang of guys who believed we could win."

Connie Mack, who is known to think that it takes more than just believin' to win, didn't say much on the subject, but did comment that "we have a good ball club this year — much better than last, livelier, but not as lively as some we've had."

The 1944 ball, he said, hasn't had a chance to show itself off to the fans because the weather has been wet.

"In weather like this," he said, "the ball is deadner than ever. I think the ball we have will have plenty of hop to it in dry, warm weather. Then we'll get some good hitting."

ARITHMETIC OF FEDERAL UNITS LITTLE FAULTY

By JAMES MARLOW AND GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, April 25 (AP)—The Army, Navy and Maritime Commission have made the manpower situation look worse than it is by using certain words and leaving others unsaid. Besides that, some of their arithmetic was bad.

The three agencies issued a joint statement calling for government control of workers through a labor draft. The statement stressed the number of workers quitting their jobs through confidence the war is about won.

The statement said: out of every 1,000 workers employed in February, 65 "quit."

Sharp Difference

There is a sharp difference between a "quit" and a "separation." Statisticians use both words, carefully distinguishing between them, to show what happens with workers.

A "quit" is a worker who does just that, quits, voluntarily leaves a job. But "separation" includes those who quit and those who leave a job for any other reason such as being laid off "for lack of work," discharged (fired for cause), or drafted.

The total separations, therefore, will always be greater than the total quits. But the three agencies' statement said 65 out of every 1,000 quit.

This is what the government's bureau of Labor Statistics, whose figures are basis for all the other agencies, says:

Only 45 out of every 1,000 quit although 65 were separated from their jobs.

Variation Of Figures

The joint statement said: "From March, 1943 to March, 1944, the civilian labor force declined by 1,500,000—equal to the number of men who will be drafted into the armed forces this year."

The statement did not point out that while the labor force was declining only 1,500,000 the armed forces had drafted 3 million out of the labor force.

This would show, therefore, that, while the labor force was losing 3 million, another 1,500,000 who had not been in the labor force a year before had come into it.

But in addition, the statement that the labor force has declined 1,500,000 in the past year is incorrect as will be shown by government figures to be released this week. The Army-Navy-Maritime Commission were using old figures although the latest figures either were available or could have been obtained.

Simple Arithmetic

Actually, the labor force did not decline 1,500,000 but much less.

This is where the three agencies slipped up on their simple arithmetic.

The statement said: Before the

BRITAIN BANS IDLE TRAVEL FOR INVASION

London, April 25 (AP)—Britain halted all but the most urgent travel overseas in another invasion-secrecy step today, while the Germans predicted the invasion hour was near and declared their most seasoned troops stood ready to meet the assault.

The travel ban, "except for business or urgent national importance which cannot be postponed," will run indefinitely and was taken "for military reasons," a home office announcement said. It followed orders restricting movements of diplomats, tightening control over coastal areas, suspending travel to Eire, and other recent steps to prevent leakage of information.

Persons now holding exit permits can use them to leave Britain until midnight Thursday. Thereafter only "urgent" permits will be issued. No permit to leave the country will be valid unless issued on or after April 19.

An Evening Thought
There is much satisfaction in work well done; praise is sweet; but there can be no happiness equal to the joy of finding a heart that understands.—Victor Robinson.

Just Folks
THE PRICE
When first he came we thought that he
A preacher of God's work might be,
Or should his pathway elsewhere lead,
A poor man's cause in court might plead.
Not guessing what the years would ask,
We trained him for some peaceful task.
Some gentle office, high or low,
By which the best of him might show.
But now he shares, with other sons,
Knowledge of warfare's various guns;
Is intimate with gears and springs
And knows the way of deadly things.
So with all youth! Their lives have turned
To lessons grim which must be learned;
For all by willing sacrifice
Are now a part of freedom's price!

Today's Talk
ALWAYS TRIUMPHANT!
There is within every human being a latent force that radiates unconsciously—like the warmth that comes from the rays of the sun but which you cannot see. But immediately you feel it. The late Albert Payson Terhune once wrote an article explaining that the domestic dog could sense the fear in a person as that person approached.
And this force is both evil and good that is concealed within the personality of a human being. Even without words spoken, it demonstrates itself. Emerson no doubt had this in mind when he stated that some men in their very selves thundered so loud that their mere words remained unheard.
I can never forget the silent power, so triumphant, of a friend whose voice has long since been silenced but whose influence still lives. I had just come from college to a big city, and needed friends. I found one in him. Tall, angular in frame, his eyes sparkled with the picture of a conqueror behind them. Everything about him seemed triumphant. Yet he had simply nothing material. He would spend his last penny to give food to some poor wanderer, and then gloat over the statement that he would meet God just around the corner, who would provide. And happily He did!
All great leaders have this latent force which invites both obedience and the willingness to follow. Call it character, if you will, but it's something that actually feeds character keeping it strong—spiritually inherited, undoubtedly.
To keep this triumphant spirit alive in one is the happiest task that anyone can pursue. Such people do not have to resort to words to announce their presence. They radiate themselves wherever they appear. There is an equipment of faith, confidence and spiritual cheer. They are the world's undefeated.
Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Hidden Talent."

Washington, April 25 (AP)—Dennis, one of 30 persons charged with sedition conspiracy, asserted in U. S. district court Monday that the trial should not be held in the District of Columbia "before a justice who is a New Dealer or at least has that reputation." He referred to Justice Edward D. Eicher, presiding when he spoke.

The latest novelty at the music halls is called a "fire dance" and is performed nightly at the Alhambra by Miss Mabelle Stuart, the young American actress, who first introduced the serpentine dance at the Folies Bergere, Paris, in 1892. The danseuse appears to be literally on fire.
Miss Stuart was born at Gettysburg, Pa., the daughter of Dr. T. T. Tate, who served through the civil war as an army surgeon. She made several tours throughout the States, playing in light comedy. Miss Stuart lived for eighteen months on a ranch in California, where she proved herself an expert horse woman. Tiring of the monotony of the life she crossed the Atlantic and after a brilliant engagement at the Folies Bergere, made a prolonged tour in the French provinces. Since then she has visited the chief capitals of Europe, making a stay of no less than five months in Madrid and other Spanish towns.

HIGH PRESTIGE FOR PRESS SEEN AFTER VICTORY
New York, April 25 (AP)—Publishers do not fear government interference with freedom of the press and believe that newspapers will emerge from the war with the highest prestige ever enjoyed, the American Newspaper Publishers association was told today.
The remarks were made by Arthur S. Hodges of the Rockville Centre, N. Y., Nassau Daily Review-Star at the opening sessions of the ANPA's 58th annual convention as representatives of newspapers with less than 50,000 circulation met to discuss war-time problems affecting small dailies.
Hodges said a nation-wide survey conducted by his paper among 100 editors, publishers, deans of journalism schools and managers of newspaper associations had shown that "leading editors and publishers of the country are confident of the future of the newspaper."
More Independent

The meeting was opened by Linwood I. Noyes of the Ironwood, Mich., Daily Globe, president of the ANPA, and Buell W. Hudson of the Woonsocket, R. I., Call, program chairman, Hudson on the program committee were Arthur P. Irving, Glens Falls, N. Y., Post-Star and Times, vice chairman; Carl B. Rain Retards Planting Here
County Agent M. T. Hartman said that the recent heavy rains have caused a delay in the normal planting on farms in this area. Particularly noticeable was the delay in the planting of early vegetables, especially peas. Planting of oats is also far behind schedule. Spring plowing also has been retarded by the heavy rains.

Would Build Peace On Respect For U. S.
Washington, April 25 (AP)—Representative Wadsworth (R-NY) called upon the new postwar military committee Monday to adopt a plan that will make the world "respect" the United States, and the first witness—an Army General—echoed the sentiment.
Brig. Gen. John McA. Palmer, testifying before the recently organized house group, said wars of the past could have been avoided if the nation had followed Washington's advice: "Every able-bodied young American should be trained to defend his country."

Wadsworth, author of the resolution creating the group to study America's postwar military position, prefaced the testimony with a declaration that "want candid discussion from the witnesses. We don't want channeled opinion or opinion dominated by their superiors. x x x Our aim is to lead the world in decency because we are respectful."

SAYS NAVY IS "ITCHING" TO MEET JAP FLEET
New York, April 25 (AP)—Rear Admiral Dewitt C. Ramsey, chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics of the U. S. Navy, said Monday the Navy was itching for a "knock down drag out fight" with the Japanese Navy, and the sooner it came the better.
"We can afford to play the game of ship for ship with them and they cannot," he said in an address prepared for the annual luncheon of The Associated Press, non-profit news gathering cooperative, at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.
Ramsey and Lieut. Gen. Alexander A. Vandergrift, Marine Corps commandant, who also spoke, declared that Japan might not risk her fleet until the war moved close to her homeland.
Another speaker at the luncheon, a feature of the 44th annual meeting of the AP, was Col. John R. Allison of the Army Air Corps, who described the landing of gliders and troops behind the Japanese lines in Burma. Robert McLean, AP president, presided.

The AP board of directors, discussing the government's anti-trust suit against the organization, said in a report submitted to a business meeting that the AP would "resist to the utmost every effort to bring about government control of news."
Admiral Ramsey expressed belief the Navy's air arm would "continue to spearhead the westward drive in the Pacific."

Approximately 1,000 miners were idle at the Ernest pit of the Rochester & Pittsburgh Coal Co., closed by a walkout yesterday.
The Maryland shaft of the Berwind-White Coal Mining Co. at St. Michael remained closed. Some 500 employees walked out Friday when the company refused to change a group of miners from one working place to another.

Seek Counterfeit Gasoline Coupons
Washington, April 25 (AP)—Counterfeit specialists are working throughout the United States to detect any illegal gasoline ration coupons under a system worked out with the Secret Service.
Shad Polier, director of the Enforcement Division of the Office of Price Administration, disclosed this Monday but he declined to tell a House Interstate Commerce Subcommittee investigating gasoline black market conditions just how many of these experts are at work.
"I'll tell the committee in closed session," he said. While it is not a military secret, there probably are some people who would like to know.
Polier urged prosecution and jail sentences for gasoline station operators who buy counterfeit coupons.

PRIMARY MAY FURNISH CLUE TO FALL TREND
Philadelphia, April 25 (AP)—Misty weather and voter apathy kept the vote light in the early period of balloting in the Pennsylvania primaries today, but party leaders still hoped for enough of a turnout to furnish clues to fall campaign trends.
Democratic and Republican organizations began drives to get out the vote immediately after the polls opened at 7 a. m. and workers were instructed to stay on the job until 3 p. m., when the polls close.
Unfavorable weather interrupting spring planting on the farms, was expected to increase the rural vote.
An organized effort to secure write-in votes for governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York for the Republican presidential nomination was reported under way.
Dewey Sentiment
Governor Edward Martin has said there was more sentiment in the state for Dewey than for any other discussed potential nominee.
There is sentiment, also, for Governor John W. Bricker, of Ohio, General Douglas MacArthur, and Lt. Commander Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, Martin said.
Dewey reportedly had the favor of the Republican state organization.
None of the discussed possible GOP nominees had filed.
President Roosevelt was unopposed in the Democratic primary. His name was entered by the Democratic State Committee.
The Republicans—with 2,454,290 registered and eligible to vote—are electing 70 uninstructed delegates to the National convention and Democrats—with 1,717,472 registered—are naming 72 convention delegates, all pledged to President Roosevelt.
Party leaders conceded that interest in the vote was light because of the lack of factional contests.

An Evening Thought

There is much satisfaction in work well done; praise is sweet; but there can be no happiness equal to the joy of finding a heart that understands.—Victor Robinson.

Just Folks

THE PRICE

When first he came we thought that he
A preacher of God's work might be,
Or should his pathway elsewhere lead.
A poor man's cause in court might plead.

Not guessing what the years would ask,
We trained him for some peaceful task.
Some gentle office, high or low,
By which the best of him might show.

But now he shares, with other sons,
Knowledge of warfare's various guns;
Is intimate with gears and springs
And knows the way of deadly things.

So with all youth! Their lives have turned
To lessons grim which must be learned;
For all by willing sacrifice
Are now a part of freedom's price!

Today's Talk

ALWAYS TRIUMPHANT!

There is within every human being a latent force that radiates unconsciously—like the warmth that comes from the rays of the sun but which you cannot see. But immediately you feel it! The late Albert Payson Terhune once wrote an article explaining that the domestic dog could sense the fear in a person as that person approached.

And this force is both evil and good that is concealed within the personality of a human being. Even without words spoken, it demonstrates itself. Emerson, no doubt had this in mind when he stated that some men in their very selves thundered so loud that their mere words remained unheard.

I can never forget the silent power, so triumphant, of a friend whose voice has long since been silenced but whose influence still lives. I had just come from college to a big city, and needed friends. I found one in him. Tall, angular in frame, his eyes sparkled with the picture of a conqueror behind them. Everything about him seemed triumphant. Yet he had simply nothing material. He would spend his last penny to give food to some poor wanderer, and then gloat over the statement that he would meet God just around the corner, who would provide. And happily He did!

All great leaders have this latent force which invites both obedience and the willingness to follow. Call it character, if you will, but it's something that actually feeds character keeping it strong—spiritually inherited, undoubtedly.

To keep this triumphant spirit alive in one is the happiest task that anyone can pursue. Such people do not have to resort to words to announce their presence. They radiate themselves wherever they appear. Theirs is an equipment of faith, confidence and spiritual cheer. They are the world's undefeated.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Hidden Talent."

Washington, April 25 (AP)—Dennis, one of 30 persons charged with seditious conspiracy, asserted in U. S. district court Monday that the trial should not be held in the District of Columbia "before a justice who is a New Dealer or at least has that reputation." He referred to Justice Edward D. Eichler, presiding when he spoke.

Miss Stuart was born at Gettysburg, Pa., the daughter of Dr. T. T. Tate, who served through the civil war as an army surgeon. She made several tours throughout the States, playing in light comedy. Miss Stuart lived for eighteen months on a ranch in California, where she proved herself an expert horsewoman. Tiring of the monotony of the life she crossed the Atlantic and after a brilliant engagement at the Folies Bergere, made a prolonged tour in the French provinces. HIGH PRESTIGE FOR PRESS SEEN AFTER VICTORY

New York, April 25 (AP)—Publishers do not fear government interference with freedom of the press and believe that newspapers will emerge from the war with the highest prestige ever enjoyed, the American Newspaper Publishers association was told today.

The remarks were made by Arthur S. Hodges of the Rockville Centre, N. Y., Nassau Daily Review-Star at the opening sessions of the ANPA's 58th annual convention as representatives of newspapers with less than 50,000 circulation met to discuss war-time problems affecting small dailies.

Hodges said a nation-wide survey conducted by his paper among 100 editors, publishers, deans of journalism schools and managers of newspaper associations had shown that "leading editors and publishers of the country are confident of the future of the newspaper."

More Independent

The meeting was opened by Linwood I. Noyes of the Ironwood, Mich., Daily Globe, president of the ANPA, and Buell W. Hudson of the Woonsocket, R. I., Call, program chairman, president.

Assisting Hudson on the program committee were Arthur P. Irving, Glens Falls, N. Y., Post-Star and Times, vice chairman; Carl B. Short, Roanoke, Va., World-News and Times; Frank Walser, Hazleton, Pa., Plain Speaker and Standard Sentinel; and Joe M. Bunting, Bloomington, Ill., Pantagraph.

Rain Retards Planting Here

County Agent M. T. Hartman said that the recent heavy rains have caused a delay in the normal planting on farms in this area. Particularly noticeable was the delay in the planting of early vegetables, especially peas. Planting of oats is also far behind schedule. Spring plowing also has been retarded by the heavy rains.

Harrisburg, April 25 (AP)—Continued heavy rains over most of the state have further delayed a planting season for Pennsylvania farmers, vegetable growers and Victory gardeners that is already two or three weeks late.

The federal-state crop reporting service of the Agriculture department said "the ground is too wet for plowing and planting and the general soaking it has had may postpone seed bed preparation to such time that some crops that should be planted early may not have opportunity to mature fully."

Secretary Miles Horst pointed out, however, that a week of good drying weather will help farmers and gardeners catch up on part of their schedule.

Corn planting in southeastern Pennsylvania usually starts within the next 10 days, Horst added, but so far many fields have not even been plowed for oats, a crop which precedes corn.

Would Build Peace On Respect For U. S.

Washington, April 25 (AP)—Representative Wadsworth (R-NY) called upon the new postwar military committee Monday to adopt a plan that will make the world "respect" the United States, and the first witness—an Army General—echoed the sentiment.

Brig. Gen. John M. Palmer, testifying before the recently organized house group, said wars of the past could have been avoided if the nation had followed Washington's advice: "Every able-bodied young American should be trained to defend his country."

Wadsworth, author of the resolution creating the group to study America's postwar military position, prefaced the testimony with a declaration that "want candid discussion from the witnesses. We don't want channelized opinion or opinion dominated by their superiors. x x x Our aim is to lead the world in decency because we are respected."

Bern, Switzerland, April 25 (AP)

—Eight American bombers landed Monday at Dubendorf, Switzerland, another at Geneva, one at Altdorf near the German frontier and several crashed, a Swiss communique said Monday. A later report from Dubendorf said 13 bombers had landed there.

Milk Sales Quotas To Be Increased

Philadelphia, April 25 (AP)—Milk dealers in ten milk sales areas in Eastern Pennsylvania will have increased sales quotas for fluid cream and milk by production during May and June, peak production months, W. P. Sadler, market agent for milk conservation orders, announced today.

Dealers will be permitted to sell as much cream and milk by-products as they sold in June, 1943, under an amendment by the war food administration. Sales have been limited to 75 per cent of the quantities sold last June.

SAYS NAVY IS "ITCHING" TO MEET JAP FLEET

New York, April 25 (AP)—Rear Admiral Dewitt C. Ramsey, chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics of the U. S. Navy, said Monday the Navy was itching for a "knock down drag out fight" with the Japanese Navy, and the sooner it came the better.

"We can afford to play the game of ship for ship with them and they cannot," he said in an address prepared for the annual luncheon of The Associated Press, non-profit news gathering cooperative, at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

Ramsey and Lieut. Gen. Alexander A. Vandergrift, Marine Corps commandant, who also spoke, declared that Japan might not risk her fleet until the war moved close to her homeland.

Another speaker at the luncheon, a feature of the 44th annual meeting of the AP, was Col. John R. Alison of the Army Air Corps, who described the landing of gliders and troops behind the Japanese lines in Burma. Robert McLean, AP president, presided.

The AP board of directors, discussing the government's anti-trust suit against the organization, said in a report submitted to a business meeting that the AP would "resist to the utmost every effort to bring about government control of news."

Admiral Ramsey expressed belief the Navy's air arm would "continue to spearhead the westward drive in the Pacific."

TWO FUGITIVES ARE CAPTURED

Harrisburg, Pa., April 25 (AP)—Recapture of Harry White, 23, of Munnhall, Pa., and Freeman Dixon, 17, of Towanda, Pa., at Harrisburg, Va., yesterday, eight days after their escape from the Pennsylvania Industrial School at nearby White Hill, was announced last night by acting school Superintendent E. S. Keller.

White, Keller said he was informed by William S. Holland, Jr., U. S. probation officer at Roanoke, Va., was wounded in the left thigh by the sheriff of Rockingham county as he was running from an automobile. Keller added White is in a hospital and Dixon in the jail at Harrisburg.

Both will face federal charges of taking an automobile stolen in Cumberland, Md., across a state line. Keller said, and are also accused of taking automobiles at Winchester, Va., and Harrisburg.

White, who was serving a sentence for rape, and Dixon, one for armed robbery and larceny of an automobile, escaped from the school after digging a hole under a wire fence Keller added.

POWER OF OBSERVATION

Seattle (AP)—The naval hospital newspaper here, the Steadholder, held a contest to see who, if anyone, could identify a published photograph of Betty Grable's legs. The chaplain won.

"WILD OATS"

Los Angeles (AP)—County Park Superintendent J. R. Wimmer proudly showed the luxuriant ornamental plants around the county agricultural building to A. J. Barton, a visiting horticulturist.

"That's a fine crop of marijuana there, my friend," commented Barton, indicating a plant growing in profusion among the prized shrubs.

Narcotics experts have begun a search for the persons who might have planted the weed.

SPRING AGAIN

Chicago (AP) — Five-year-old Lambert Kirchen reported to the Joyce Kilmer school as usual. He couldn't get in, so he started wandering about the north side. He got lost and finally lay down on a lawn and cried. Later police returned the boy to his mother.

Spring vacation had started and school was closed—but young Kirchen had forgotten about the holiday.

WRONG DISH

Chicago (AP) — Mrs. Mildred Minerva told Circuit Judge Robert J. Dunne her husband, Sam, a chef, was displeased with the meal she prepared for him last March 5.

He picked up a big plate of spaghetti, with tomato sauce, and threw it in her face, Mrs. Minerva said, and walked out of the house. She hasn't seen him since, Mrs. Minerva said as Judge Dunne granted her a divorce.

1,500 Coal Miners Are Out On Strike

Indiana, Pa., April 25 (AP)—Strikes kept two central Pennsylvania soft coal mines closed today.

Approximately 1,000 miners were idle at the Ernest pit of the Rochester & Pittsburgh Coal Co., closed by a walkout yesterday.

The Maryland shaft of the Berwind-White Coal Mining Co. at St. Michael remained closed. Some 500 employees walked out Friday when the company refused to change a group of miners from one working place to another.

NO GUM FOR CIVILIANS

Chicago, April 25 (AP)—The William Wrigley Jr. Company informed its distributors Monday that beginning May 1 all chewing gum manufactured by the firm will go to the Army and Navy for service men overseas.

Seek Counterfeit Gasoline Coupons

Washington, April 25 (AP)—Counterfeit specialists are working throughout the United States to detect any illegal gasoline ration coupons under a system worked out with the Secret Service.

Shad Polier, director of the Enforcement Division of the Office of Price Administration, disclosed this Monday but he declined to tell a House Interstate Commerce Subcommittee investigating gasoline black market conditions just how many of these experts are at work.

"I'll tell the committee in closed session," he said. While it is not a military secret, there probably are some people who would like to know."

Polier urged prosecution and jail sentences for gasoline station operators who buy counterfeit coupons.

Bootleg Miners Close Coal Mines

Shamokin, Pa., April 25 (AP)—The protest of free-lance miners of Northumberland county against a ban on unauthorized anthracite digging entered its fifth day today with one private coal operation closed down and more than a score of others picketed.

The protest was launched last Friday against stripping operations on coal lands owned by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company and more than 1,200 pickets, riding in caravans of automobiles and trucks, were reported since then as roaming through the Shamokin and Treverton areas.

The company's North Franklin operation at Treverton, Pa., suspended yesterday, state police Lieut. A. F. Dahlstrom reported, after a walkout of truck drivers. The operation produces about 4,000 tons of coal daily.

Educators To Meet For 5th Bond Drive

Representative members of the school systems of Pennsylvania have been invited to attend an organizational meeting in Harrisburg April 27. G. Ruhland Rebmann, Jr., chairman of the War Finance Committee of Pennsylvania announced today.

An Education Advisory committee for the Education Section, War Finance committee, will be chosen at that time and plans for a more effective Schools-at-War program will be made.

Killing, Pa., April 25 (AP)

Larry Dwan Bowser, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bowser, was drowned Monday when he tumbled into Buffalo creek near Worthington while playing with a brother, Coroner C. M. Woodward reported.

PRIMARY MAY FURNISH CLUE TO FALL TREND

Philadelphia, April 25 (AP)—Misty weather and voter apathy kept the vote light in the early period of balloting in the Pennsylvania primaries today, but party leaders still hoped for enough of a turnout to furnish clues to fall campaign trends.

Democratic and Republican organizations began drives to get out the vote immediately after the polls opened at 7 a. m. and workers were instructed to stay on the job until 8 p. m. when the polls close.

Unfavorable weather interrupting spring planting on the farms, was expected to increase the rural vote.

An organized effort to secure write-in votes for governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York for the Republican presidential nomination was reported under way.

Dewey Sentiment

Governor Edward Martin has said there was more sentiment in the state for Dewey than for any other discussed potential nominee.

There is sentiment, also, for Governor John W. Bricker, of Ohio, General Douglas MacArthur, and Lt. Commander Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, Martin said.

Dewey reportedly had the favor of the Republican state organization.

None of the discussed possible GOP nominees had filed.

President Roosevelt was unopposed in the Democratic primary. His name was entered by the Democratic State Committee.

The Republicans — with 2,454,290 registered and eligible to vote — are electing 70 uninstructed delegates to the National convention and Democrats — with 1,717,472 registered — are naming 12 convention delegates, all pledged to President Roosevelt.

Party leaders conceded that interest in the vote was light because of the lack of factional contests.

FATHER OF 5 ELECTROCUTED

Beaver Falls, Pa., April 25 (AP)—Ambrose Mantagazz, 52, father of five children, was electrocuted at the New Galilee plant of the New Castle Refractories Co. when he attempted to repair a high tension line blown down by a storm. Coroner J. M. Davis reported.

KILLED BY TRAIN

Jeannette, Pa., April 25 (AP)—Nicholas Myrprysak, 70, was killed instantly yesterday when struck by a passenger train.

ILO Is Divided On Future Policy

Philadelphia, April 25 (AP)—Representatives of 29 more nations added their voices today to a full dress debate on the postwar course of the International Labor Organization.

Will the ILO continue as an advisory body, making recommendations toward better economic conditions in its 41 member nations, or will it strive for power to enforce its decisions on social, labor and employment questions?

Will it, in the phrase of Mexican employer delegate Pedro A. Chapa, seek to become "in effect a super-state" by demanding the right to "scrutinize" international economic and financial policies?

The cleavage lines already were drawn — British and Australian government delegates advocating more power, United States and British labor representatives urging that the ILO continue as in the past 25 years. Chapa sided with the labor delegation.

Coffee, chocolate and tea were among the first food products advertised in newspapers.

OPPOSE PUBLIC DEBT BOOST TO
260 BILLIONS

Washington, April 25 (AP)—Republican opposition developed in the House today against an administration bill to raise the public debt limit from $210,000,000,000 to $260-000,000,000.

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.), Republican leader of the Ways and Means Committee, said "we're going to insist that the new limit be set considerably lower than $260,000,000,000, probably $240,000,000,000 would be enough." He added:

"No matter what limit we set—even at a thousand billion—this administration would reach it."

President Roosevelt, in his budget message to Congress early in the year, estimated the public debt would reach $258,000,000,000 by June 30, 1945. As of this April 21 it was $186,968,808,388 compared with $123-474,208,476 on the same date last year and $43,000,000,000 on July 1, 1940, at about the time the nation began its mammoth preparedness efforts.

Since July 1, 1940, Congress has authorized expenditures aggregating $237,000,000,000 for war activities, much of which has not yet been used.

Records of the House Appropriations Committee show presidential requests for appropriations totaling about $99,000,000,000 for the next fiscal year beginning July 1, of which about $93,000,000,000 would be for war purposes.

The debt limit was raised last March from $125,000,000,000 to $210,000,000,000.

9 KILLED WHEN PLANE CRASHES

Montreal, April 25 (AP)—The crash of a twin-engine bomber in Montreal's downtown commercial district today killed nine persons, injured others and left a dozen dwellings wrecked and flaming.

Some eyewitnesses said the bomber exploded in the air, while others said it blew up after striking the building, sending fragments 50 feet into the air. Parts of the wings and engines settled over sections of a block bounded by Colborne, Ottawa, Shannon and Smith streets—not far from the Canadian National Railways' old Bonaventure station.

The plane apparently struck coming in over Shannon street, wrecking two tenement houses. Its fuselage came to rest in a mass of wreckage in which bodies could be seen.

One eyewitness said a member of the crew who parachuted was badly injured and taken to a hospital.

Flames from the exploded bomber set afire a half dozen buildings.
One woman removed from a structure by firemen screamed that her three children were still inside.

Two hundred soldiers were brought into the area as firemen brought the flames under control.

The first session of the Supreme Court in the United States was held in New York city in 1790.

ESCAPE from PARIS

by Marion McClure Stewart.

AP Features

Chapter 32

They went down the ladder and found themselves in a tunnel, ten feet in height, enclosed above and on both sides by cemented stone work, with a floor inlaid with bricks.

They stood still for a moment as the sound of voices came to them from the room nearest the connecting passage. Then advancing towards the doorway they saw three men sitting playing cards under a central light.

A man small in stature, but rudely faced and sturdy, instantly rose and advanced towards Raoul with an outstretched hand and a welcoming smile.

"You are Raoul de Lamothe," he said. "I have seen you at a meeting in Paris, so I recognized you immediately. And this," he added glancing towards Adrienne with a smile, "is Adrienne—my old friend's niece." He held her hand tightly. "You make a pretty boy, but I see that you are weary. Come, Adrienne, I have a room ready for you. Or will you have some wine first?"

"Not tonight thank you," returned Adrienne smiling.

"Captain Morin, this is our good friend and ally, Charles Duval.
Without his help we could never have made this journey safely. M.
Duval would like to join the fighting French."

Captain Morin grasped Duval's hand heartily. "Welcome. You are one of us from now on. Now Adrienne my child," he added turning to her, "come with me."

Two Spitfire planes were on their way back across the Channel after forming part of a fighter escort for bombers raiding Germany by day, when a trio of Messer-schmitts appeared from behind a cloud formation.

To John Farrel, pilot of one
Spitfire, it looked as if he and Torchy Williams were in for trouble.
Radioing a warning to Torchy he climbed, but not before the pilot of the foremost Messerschmitt had adopted the same tactics and opened fire. Getting his opponent in his sights, John met his attack with a furious burst of fire that raked his fuselage and damaged a wing; then with a rapid half roll he dived to avoid the Nazi's return fire. He could hear the shower of lead graze his fuselage as he poured a steady stream of fire

Better Railroad Comfort Planned

Chicago, April 25 (AP)—The nation's railroads, busily engaged in wartime activity, are making extensive plans to improve passenger accommodations and make rail travel more attractive in the post-war period, a survey today disclosed.

More than 30 ways of improving passenger comfort and service after the war are being studied, the survey said in reporting on views expressed by top officials of 71 railroads owning 92 per cent of the country's passenger cars.

Highlighting the observations in the survey by the Pullman-Standard Car Manufacturing company was the carriers' determination to cut fares, speed up trains and design future equipment to include new devices and conveniences for the passengers' comfort.

Seek Ford, Lindy In Sedition Trial

Washington, April 25 (AP)—A ruling by Justice Edward C. Fitcher was awaited today on a motion to subpoena Henry Ford and Charles A. Lindbergh as witnesses in the trial of 30 persons charged with conspiracy to disaffect the U. S. armed forces.

The motion was filed by James J. Laughlin, attorney for Edward James Smythe, of New York, one of the defendants. Laughlin contends the presence of Ford and Lindbergh is necessary to prove his assertion that the trial was instituted by the government in an effort to discredit "certain patriotic Americans."

No comment has been made publicly by Lindbergh; but Ford in a statement issued through his Washington representatives, said last night:

"This attempt to link my name with men who are charged with disloyalty to our country is a malicious attempt on their part to obscure their alleged misdeeds and has no basis in truth or in fact."

THREE GERMAN AIRFIELDS IN FRANCE BOMBED

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

London, April 25 (AP)—Well over 1,000 American bombers and fighters bombed three German airfields in France today, the 11th consecutive day of the war's greatest aerial offensive. The German radio said other Allied raiders had penetrated into the southern sector of the Reich.

A preliminary announcement of daylight activity, which appeared again to be on a gigantic scale, said Fortresses and Liberators from Britain smashed at German airfields at Nancy, Metz and Dijon in the continuing all-out effort to humble Hitler's air forces ahead of the western invasion.

The daylight attacks followed attacks last night by probably 1,000 planes of the RAF which blasted industrial Munich and Karlsruhe.

Bombers Over Reich

Waves of planes of all types drove forward the campaign that has poured 40,000 to 50,000 tons of explosives on Hitler's war machine since mid-April, and shortly before noon the German radio reported strong bomber formations over the southern, western, and southwestern portions of the Reich.

Thirty British planes were lost last night, when the main blows aimed at factories and communications in Karlsruhe and Munich. Mosquito planes hit Dusseldorf and other raiders pounded the rail depot at Chamblay 20 miles north of Paris.

Reconnaissance showed fires spreading over a large area of Munich an hour after the main bomber force had left, the air ministry said, and the attacks there and at Karlsruhe 150 miles to the northwest were "well concentrated." The raid into Germany was described as "in very great strength."

Week 152 Planes

The Monday armadas from Britain sent down 103 German planes in air combat and wrecked 49 more on the ground for a toll of 152 against losses of 38 bombers and 17 fighters.

The Mediterranean air force bagged 29 Nazi planes yesterday against a loss of 14 but headquarters did not specify how many fell in the raids into Romania and Yugoslavia.

Some 4,000 tons of bombs were rained on Nazi targets yesterday in the blows from the west and south. U. S. Mustangs, Lightnings, and thunderbolts and RAF Mustangs escorted the Liberators and Flying Fortresses to Friedrichshafen and Munich sent down 60 enemy planes, and bomber gunners accounted for 37 more.

Twelve American bombers landed in Switzerland after a raid on Friedrichshafen, and two others crashed in that neutral country, the Swiss announced. One was shot down by Swiss fighters when it failed to obey landing signals.

RISING RIVER HALTS TRAFFIC

Philadelphia, April 25 (AP)—The rain swollen Schuylkill river, running almost 11 feet above normal, reached into the lower levels of the Mahunk section of Philadelphia today halting Philadelphia Transit company bus service and making it necessary to close several streets.

The U. S. weather bureau issued warnings that the river will probably overflow its banks along the East and West River drives in Fairmount park today when it reaches a crest of 11 feet above normal sometime around 8 a. m.

At nearby Norristown the Schuylkill was less than three feet below flood stage. War plants along the river in the Norristown area were preparing to move all perishable goods to upper floors. Special crews of workmen were called in because of the emergency.

A quarter of a century ago, school children were dismissed to see passing automobiles.

STEEL CANNOT ABSORB LABOR WAGE DEMANDS

By JOSEPH A. LOFTUS

Washington, April 25 (AP)—The nation's iron and steel producers, big and small, declared today they are unable to absorb any wage increases. They pronounced demands by the CIO United Steel Workers unwarranted.

Benjamin F. Fairless, president of the U. S. Steel corporation, told a War Labor Board (WLB) panel that if the union's demands are granted "the public will have to foot the bill." He placed the cost of all the demands at a half-billion dollars for 31 principal companies.

Union Crusade

Lauson (CQ) Stone, president of one of the industry's smaller units, Polansbee Steel corporation, declared: "I do not believe that the granting of the union's demands is necessary to the effective prosecution of the war. I do believe that they are contrary to the national economic stabilization program and that they constitute a political crusade on the part of the union."

The steel makers thus opened their reply to the union's demands for an increase of 17 cents an hour, a guaranteed wage, dismissal pay, a fund for returning servicemen, and about ten other items.

A final decision by the board may not be reached until late summer or fall. Fairless cited Bureau of Labor statistics records to show that average weekly earnings last January were $52.49, which he said was $7.34 more per week than the average in all manufacturing industries and $1.28 more than the average in durable goods industries. The steelworkers' earnings, he said, represent an increase of 56.2 per cent over earnings in January, 1941.

BRICKER SCOFFS "SECOND PLACE"

By JACK BELL

New York, April 25 (AP)—Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio told a press conference today he is "not interested" in a vice presidential nomination on the Republican ticket.

The Ohio presidential candidate, here for a major campaign speech on foreign policy tonight, was asked if he would accept the second place on the ticket if he failed to obtain the nomination which he seeks.

"I am a candidate for president and intend to continue my campaign on that basis," the white-haired governor said. "I am not interested in a vice presidential nomination."

The governor told reporters he was "very well satisfied" with the progress of his campaign, declaring that he had picked up some delegates on a recent west coast tour. Bricker did not comment directly on the claim of Roy D. Moore, his campaign manager, that the Bricker camp would go into the June convention with 257 delegates.

The governor said, however, he expected to have some representation in the southern delegations. He said he also had been assured of some votes from New England, an area which Moore had eliminated in his calculations as being unlikely to produce any large number of delegates for the governor.

Urges Merger Of U. S. Army And Navy Under One Chief

Washington, April 25 (AP)—Creation of a single department of the armed forces to replace the present departments of War and Navy after the present war was recommended to Congress today by Secretary of War Stimson.

Stimson told the House Committee on postwar military policy that statutory unification of command should not be effected during the present war but added it is "of the greatest importance that the general principle of consolidation be determined upon as soon as possible."

A unified department, he said, "is essential if our nation is adequately and most effectively to carry on its wars under modern conditions which have revealed that even our great nation has limitations in manpower and resources."
